DirectOut, a provider of professional audio solutions, announces that Sonos Libra has been officially appointed as its distributor for Thailand and Vietnam, effective immediately. Sonos Libra, a prominent provider of professional audio distribution services, has built an outstanding reputation in Thailand and Vietnam. With its commitment to quality and customer satisfaction, as well as its expertise in audio distribution and processing, Sonos Libra is the ideal partner to strengthen DirectOut's presence in Southeast Asia.

“DirectOut's approach to audio distribution and processing has caught the attention of many professionals in recent years and further strengthened their reputation. It was therefore a great solution to add to our catalogue. The highly flexible clocking and redundancy options of the PRODIGY series are obviously highly desirable and add tremendous value to projects and applications where downtime is not an option,” says Simon Rains, Chief Engineer & Education Director of Sonos Libra, enthusiastically about the partnership.

The partnership with Sonos Libra will enable DirectOut to bring its state-of-the-art solutions to an even wider customer base in the region. With offices in Bangkok, Ho Chi Minh City and Hanoi, Sonos Libra is ideally positioned to provide excellent local service and support. “We welcome Sonos Libra to our DirectOut family with open arms,” says Luca Giaroli, Chief Solutions Officer of DirectOut. “Their long-standing expertise and relentless pursuit of the highest quality and customer satisfaction reflect our own beliefs. This partnership will undoubtedly contribute to providing our customers in the area with not only best-in-class solutions, but also an unrivalled service experience.”
